EDUCATION

University of Arizona August 2025–May 2031 (Expected)
Ph.D. in Clinical Psychology
Advisor: Zachary Cohen (Personalized Treatment Lab)

Dartmouth College September 2021–June 2025
BA in Psychology, Minor in Computer Science
Summa Cum Laude | Phi Beta Kappa | Honors in the Major
Advisors: Nicholas C. Jacobson, Thalia Wheatley

RESEARCH INTERESTS

---

My research uses data science methods (e.g., deep learning) and intensive longitudinal data (e.g., ecological momentary assessment, mobile and wearable sensing) to understand, measure, and predict mental health as idiographic, dynamic complex systems. I advance precision and scalable digital interventions by modeling the interindividual, temporal, and contextual variability in symptoms, behaviors, and treatment response. I also examine the psychometric foundations of ecological momentary assessment and passive sensing to ensure valid and reliable measurement of dynamic mental health processes.

AWARDS & GRANTS

CLINICAL EXPERIENCE

Hanover Center for Cognitive Behavioral Therapies

Jan 2024–Mar 2024

Position: Clinical Assistant

Supervisor: Seoka Salstrom, PhD

Responsibilities:

- Composed psychoeducational and neuropsychological evaluation reports with oversight from the clinic's neuropsychological and learning disabilities specialist.
- Conducted literature reviews to help clinical psychologists stay current with emerging treatment modalities and best practices.
- Created an organized database of psychometric tests, diagnostic measures, associated research papers, and guidelines for easy reference.
- Provided technical support by troubleshooting and resolving software and computer problems that clinicians were unable to solve themselves.
- Engaged in mentorship and advice meetings with clinicians from diverse backgrounds, and attended weekly practice and clinical meetings.
- Efficiently managed client communications, resolving issues via email and assisting in-person clients with administrative questions and concerns.
- Performed various administrative duties, including billing, creating guides for future employees, managing office supplies and mail, and playing with child clients while clinicians met with their parents.
